INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

1. Read the information contained in this application form carefully. Contact PIRSA Fisheries if you need clarification of any fisheries management or licensing matter contained in, or related to, this form.
2. You are advised to contact the Department of Transport Energy and Infrastructure regarding qualifications necessary to operate a boat.
3. Seek professional advice if necessary in relation to the completion of this form, including taxation and legal issues.
4. Licence transfers attract stamp duty, including transfers between family members and transfers for which no money changes hands. Please be aware that PIRSA Fisheries Licensing cannot complete a transfer until stamp duty is paid. You must therefore organise for the payment of stamp duty by making arrangements through Revenue SA. If you are not familiar with stamp duty obligations, you should seek advice from RevenueSA, Compliance Branch, on free call phone number 1800 676 198, prior to completing a transfer application.
5. Attachments 1 and 2 contain some information provided by the State Taxation office and the Australian Taxation Office.
6. The person or company who currently holds the licence must complete Part A of this form, and the statutory declaration at the end of Part A.
7. The person or company to whom the licence is to be transferred must complete Part B of this form, and the statutory declaration at the end of Part B.
8. In some cases Part C may also need to be completed. Refer to page 9 of this application in relation to registered masters.
9. All parts of the application form must be submitted at the same time. If the proposed transferee is a company, please ensure that the relevant attachments are enclosed with the application.
10. If there is one or more persons or entities registered on the public register as having an interest in the licence that is to be transferred, they must provide consent to the transfer. You must seek this consent and attach it to this application. If a bank is a registered interest holder, the written consent must be provided on bank letterhead and / or be stamped with the bank seal.

Third party interest holders should also complete the “Cancellation of 3rd party interest form” that is attached to this application, if they will no longer have an interest in the licence after it is transferred.

11. All applications must be completed in full before being lodged with PIRSA Fisheries Licensing. Applications that are not complete, or that do not have correct documentation attached, will be returned. Please contact PIRSA Fisheries Licensing on (08) 8347 6107 if you have any queries.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. The Fisheries Management (Charter Boat Fishery) Regulations 2007 provide that a licence in respect of the charter boat fishery may be transferred with the consent of the Minister. An application for consent must be in writing and must be made on this form.
2. The Minister must not consent to a transfer unless he is satisfied that:
 - the licence to be transferred has not been suspended; and
 - the transferee, or a director of a transferee company, has not had any conviction under the fisheries legislation of any State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia for a period of three (3) years preceding the date of application, or does not have current charges or prosecution action pending for fisheries related offences; and
 - the transferee, holds current public liability insurance to the amount of at least $10 million in relation to death, bodily injury or property damage; and
 - any other requirements of the Fisheries Management Act 2007 and all regulations under that Act are met.
3. Upon the death of a licence holder, the licence will become vested in the personal representative of the deceased, as part of the estate of the deceased. The requirements that apply in this situation are set out in section 57 of the Fisheries Management Act 2007.
4. The Fisheries Management Act 2007 provides that a public register of authorities (including licences) issued under the Act must be kept. This register must include, among other things, a notation that a specified person has a registered interest in a licence. This notation will be made upon application by the holder of the relevant licence, and on payment of the prescribed fee.

FALSE AND MISLEADING INFORMATION

A person must not, in furnishing information in or in connection with any application or otherwise in pursuance of the Fisheries Management Act 2007, make or cause to be made any statement that is false or misleading in a material particular.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN STATE TAXATION OFFICE

STAMP DUTIES

CIRCULAR NO. 9

FISHING LICENCES - LIABILITY FOR DUTY

The Stamp Duties Office has long held the view that a fishing licence is “property” for the purposes of the Stamp Duties Act and that a conveyance on sale of a licence is liable for ad valorem duty.

This view has been confirmed by the South Australian Supreme Court in Pennington Vs McGovern (1987) 45 SASR 27 and by the Western Australian Supreme Court in Austell Pty Ltd Vs Commissioner of State Taxation (WA) 20 ATR.

As it is clear that some practitioners and members of the fishing industry hold a contrary view, or are not aware of the Supreme Court decisions this circular is issued to place on record the requirement for such transactions to be stamped.

This Office will continue to monitor compliance in this area and impose penalties on unstamped documentation once detected.

Any enquiries should be directed to the Stamp Duties enquiry area on telephone (08) 8226 2175 or (08) 8226 3255.

COMMISSIONER OF STAMPS

AUSTRALIAN TAXATION OFFICE

REPORTABLE PAYMENTS SYSTEM (RPS) Effective from 1 December 1994

As you are involved in the Fishing Industry it is likely that the Reportable Payments System (RPS) will apply to you. This system is not a new tax, it is a means of notifying the Tax Office of payments on which tax should be paid and helps make sure that people pay the right amount of tax.

This leaflet gives you a brief outline of the new arrangements. An information booklet detailing all the requirements of the RPS is available from the Tax Offices as well as some processors, wholesalers and co-operatives.

WHAT IS A REPORTABLE PAYMENT?

A Reportable Payment will take place when either of the following two things happen:

- ⇒ Fish is bought or sold, except when it is sold to:
 - a retailer or by a retailer *
 - the general public
- ⇒ Someone is paid for taking or catching fish.

However salary and wages paid to employees are not Reportable Payments, they are covered by the Pay As You Earn (PAYE) system.

(*A retailer is a person or organisation who earns more than half their income through sales to the general public, eg. Take away food shops, restaurants and supermarkets.)

Some examples of Reportable Payments:

A processor pays a diver for abalone.

A fisher buys fish for bait from another fisher.

A share of the proceeds of a catch is paid to a deckhand who is not an employee.

A fish agent pays a fisher the proceeds of a sale on the fisher behalf.

WHAT IS A FISH?

The term fish means live, fresh, processed or farmed fish, or part of any fish and includes crustaceans, molluscs and echinoderms.

WHO IS A PAYER AND WHO IS A PAYEE (AND WHO IS BOTH)?

The RPS defines a person who makes a Reportable Payment as a Payer and a person who received a Reportable Payment as a Payee.

If you pay some people and get paid by others, you are both a Payer and a Payee which will be the case for many people.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO IF I AM A PAYER?

- Accept and record Tax File Numbers (TFNs) quoted on Reportable Payments Declaration forms by payees.
- Complete the Payer details on Declaration Forms and send the forms to the Tax Office.
- Withhold tax of 48.4% from any Reportable Payment where no TFN has been quoted or a Pensioner Exemption has not been claimed.
- Provide a receipt to the Payee for any deduction made from a Reportable Payment.
- Send any tax withheld to the Tax Office.
- Provide an Annual Report, with details of all Reportable Payments made and any tax deducted during the financial year, to the Tax Office.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO IF I AM A PAYEE?

- Decide whether to quote your Tax File Number (TFN) or claim a Pensioner Exemption.*
- If you decide not to quote your TFN or claim a Pensioner Exemption, your payer is required to deduct tax at the rate of 48.4%.
- If you decide to quote, complete a Reportable Payments Declaration Form and give it to your payer, who will send it to the Tax Office.
- If you do not have a TFN or do not know it, you should fill in a Tax File Number Application/Enquiry Form which is available from your local Tax Office.

Pensioner Exemptions

You may claim an exemption from quoting your TFN if you are receiving any of the following Australian Government pensions or benefits:

Age Pension Disability Support Pension
Wife Pension Carer Pension
Sole Parent Pension Widow B Pension
Special Benefit Special Needs Pension
Pension under the Veteran’s Entitlements Act 1986

HOW OFTEN DO DECLARATION FORMS HAVE TO BE COMPLETED?

Payees need to give each of their Payers only one Declaration Form, regardless of the number of payments made. However, if it is more than 12 months since a Payee received a Reportable Payment from a Payer, a new Declaration Form needs to be completed or the Payer is required to deduct tax from future payments.

For further information on anything contained above call the RPS Information Service on 1800 625 624.
