Three	• Reprocess available seismic data for detailed resolution of target areas: and/or • Conduct magneto-telluric survey to assess potential for water movement within sedimentary sequence

Four	• Drill narrow diameter holes to an aggregate of at least 1000 metres and measure detailed geothermal gradients; or • Re-enter at least 1 abandoned petroleum well with a target of measuring detailed geothermal gradients
Five	• Re-enter and deepen at least one abandoned Petroleum well, with a target of penetrating the basement lithology; or • Within the boundaries of the four tenements (GELs 170, 171, 172 & 173) or such lesser area as may then be held, drill and complete 2 geothermal wells.

2. The Licensee must take all reasonable precautions to minimise the risks of its activities resulting in a significant loss of petroleum reserves or a significant reduction in the recovery of petroleum reserves.

3. The Licensee must:

   (a) upon commencement of regulated activities under this licence, maintain in force during the term of this licence public liability insurance to cover regulated activities under this licence (including sudden and accidental pollution) in the name of the Licensee for a sum not less than twenty million dollars ($20,000,000.00) or such greater sum as specified by the Minister and make such amendments to the terms and conditions of the insurance as the Minister may from time to time require;

5. The Licensee will ensure, when preparing an Environmental Impact Report under Part 12 of the Petroleum Act 2000, that the report also includes an assessment of the potential economic consequences for other licensees under the Petroleum Act 2000 or Mining Act 1971 and owners of land, arising out of proposed regulated activities to be carried out in the licence area.

6. The Licensee must keep confidential any measurements made in a well which would enable the estimation of petroleum reserves ("Confidential Information") and must not disclose the Confidential Information without first obtaining the written consent of the licensee of the overlapping compatible licence, unless:

   (a) it is a disclosure required under the Act, this licence or any other law;

   (b) it is a disclosure which is for the purposes of prosecuting or defending any legal proceedings; or
