

Sheep and goat eID device rebate

Applications are open for South Australian producers

South Australian sheep and farmed goat producers can now apply for a rebate on eligible eID tags purchased between 1 January - 31 December 2023.

What is the rebate?

The sheep and goat eID Device Rebate (2023) offers a 50% rebate up to a cap of $0.95 (GST exclusive) on the purchase price of each 2023 year-of-birth NLIS accredited eID tag.

The rebate is part of the Government of South Australia's support package to assist with the national transition to eID.

What is the eligibility criteria?

To be eligible for the eID Device Rebate, you must:

- be a South Australian sheep or farmed goat producer
- have an active property identification code (PIC) and be registered with PIRSA
- provide proof of payment for the purchase of eligible eID tags.

Eligible devices must:

- be NLIS accredited eID breeder tags for sheep and goats
- be the correct year-of-birth colour for 2023 (sky blue)
- have been purchased between 1 January - 31 December 2023.

How can I apply?

Visit the PIRSA website to read the guidelines and complete the online application form. Applications close 5 pm (ACST) 30 April 2024.

Scan the QR code to learn more about the eID device rebate and apply.

